Holidays

June 15th: Father's Day

This day is dedicated to all the fathers who stand as a pillar for their family members. Father's Day is a day to show our love and gratitude to our fathers and make them feel special.

June 19th: Juneteenth

Juneteenth is a holiday that commemorates the emancipation of enslaved people after the Civil War. It is celebrated annually on June 19th and is considered by some as America's second Independence Day

June 21st: Summer Solstice

The summer solstice is an astronomical event that marks the point when the Sun reaches its highest position in the sky and the longest day of the year.
