Cassandra Whitcomb: Cook

1. Tell us about your family:

My husband, Wesley and I, have 3 beautiful daughters, Autumn 17, Avery 13, and Nova 8. We are a multi-generational household; my sister Becka and mother Dawn, all share one tiny house with our dog Boe, and 2 cats Leo and Harley.

2. What is on your bucket list?

I hope to one day see the Northern Lights at the Aurora Borealis observatory in Silsand, Norway. There is also a biolutinecent algae display off the coast of Florida that I always thought would be a unique experience.

3. What is your favorite holiday and why?

I love Memorial Day. I grew up in a military household and memorial day was always the mark of the beginning of summer for us. We would go to special celebrations honoring service men like my grandpa, father and stepfather then go on a family camping trip in a tent. Not a camper.

4. If you could live anywhere, where would it be?

Probably the mountains of almost anywhere. There's still magic in nature, pleaple have just lost their connection to it.

5. What is your favorite part of your job?

As a career cook, nothing has been as rewarding or personally challenging as being a chef at this facility. I love that every day continues to push me so that I can learn and grow, not only as a chef, but as a person.
